

PROVIDING FOR CONSIDERATION OF CERTAIN RESOLUTIONS IN PREPARATION FOR THE ADJOURNMENT OF THE SECOND SESSION SINE DIE

OCTOBER 13, 1998.—Referred to the House Calendar and ordered to be printed

---

Mr. SOLOMON, from the Committee on Rules, submitted the following

REPORT

[To accompany H. Res. 594]

The Committee on Rules, having had under consideration House Resolution 594, by a non-record vote, report the same to the House with the recommendation that the resolution be adopted.

BRIEF SUMMARY OF PROVISIONS OF RESOLUTION

The resolution provides for action on certain resolutions in preparation for the adjournment of the second session sine die. These include: (1) consideration of a joint resolution appointing the day for the convening of the first session of the 106th Congress, subject to one hour of debate in the House equally divided between the Majority Leader and the Minority Leader or their designees and one motion to commit; (2) the adoption of a House resolution providing that any organizational caucus or conference in the House of Representatives for the 106th Congress may begin on or after November 18, 1998; (3) the adoption of a House resolution providing for the printing of a revised edition of the Rules and Manual of the House of Representatives for the 106th Congress; (4) the adoption of a House resolution providing that a committee of two Members of the House be appointed to wait upon the President of the United States and inform him that the House of Representatives has completed its business of the session and is ready to adjourn, unless the President has some other communication to make to them; (5) authorizing the Speaker, Majority Leader, and the Minority Leader to accept resignations and make certain appointments following the adjournment of the second session sine die as authorized by law or by the House; and (6) authorizing the chairman and ranking minority member of each standing committee and subcommittee to extend their remarks in the Congressional Record and include a summary of the work of their committee or subcommittee.
